Sunday 14th April: Reflection 'The First Christians: Defending the early Christians before Emperor Hadrian, Aristides, a non-Christian, said of them: "These Christians love one another. They never fail to help widows. They save orphans from those who would hurt them. If a man has something, he gives freely to the man who has nothing. If they see a stranger, Christians take him into their homes and treat him as a brother. And if they hear that one of them is in jail, or persecuted for professing the name of their redeemer, they all give him what he needs. If it is possible, they bail him out. If one of them is poor and there isn't enough food to go around, they fast several days to give him the food he needs. We are dealing with a different kind of person. There is something divine in them"

Thought for the week: Risen Jesus, thank you for your gift to us when you said: 'Peace be with you' – the peace of God, deep lasting peace, a peace that brings inner calm. A peace that keeps a person steady in the storm, that faces the persecutor without fear and proclaims the Good News with courage and with joy. This is the peace that reconciles sister to brother, black to white, rich to poor and young to old. This is peace with God, a peace that surpasses understanding.

Trocaire: A big thank you to all who handed in your Trocaire contributions already – a total of €7,525 so far. Any remaining contributions as soon as possible please so that we can send off the total to Trocaire.
